RUMBLE IN FORT WAYNE TICKET SALES BEGIN NOVEMBER 16

Advance Reserved Seating Area and General Admission Tickets Available

FORT WAYNE, IN (Nov. 10, 2022) – Reserved seating and general admission tickets for the 24th running of the Rumble in Fort Wayne presented by Jason Dietsch Trailer Sales (Dec. 30 and 31) will go on sale Wednesday, November 16. Race fans may purchase their tickets through any Ticketmaster outlet or in person at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum (ACWMC) box office during normal business hours.

Conducted inside the massive Expo Center which joins the ACWMC, the Rumble features multiple divisions of indoor auto racing on a purposely built 1/6 mile concrete oval. Included on the card will be Midgets, Winged and Non-Winged 600 Midgets plus multiple classes of Go-Karts and Quarter Midgets.

The designated area for reserved seating remains as the top six rows of the spectator grandstands which encompass three sides of the racing oval. The balance will be considered general admission areas.

“The reserved sections are popular among the fans that have preferred viewing angles,” commented event promoter Larry Boos. “They also offer peace of mind to those that travel a long distance; knowing that a seat awaits them when they come to the popular mid-winter event.”

While the advance sale purchase guarantees the race fans a ticket to the unique racing event, walk-up sales will also be conducted each day/night of the Rumble in Fort Wayne presented by Jason Dietsch Trailer Sales.

Friday (Dec. 30) and Saturday (Dec. 31) each will be a full day and night of racing action for all of the participating divisions. Daily adult pricing for ages 13 & up will be $25 for reserved seats and $23 for general admission seating. Children (2-12) pricing will be $15 (reserved) and $13 (general admission).
