JEREMY HOWE RACING LENDS SUPPORT TO SENIOR CHAMPS AT RUMBLE

Former Participant in the Class Cites His Love of the Division

FORT WAYNE, IND (December 7, 2021) – Citing his affection for caged go-kart racing, Jeremy Howe of Jeremy Howe Racing is giving back to his roots by sponsoring this year’s Senior Champ class at the 23rd Rumble in Fort Wayne presented by Jason Dietsch Trailer Sales. To be held December 17 and 18 inside of Fort Wayne’s Allen County War Memorial Coliseum on a purpose-built 1/6 mile concrete oval, the annual event brings together multiple forms of racing, including the go-karts.

“I got my start in racing through the caged go-karts, and eventually moved into the Sr. Champ division, where I raced them for many years,” stated Howe. The Angola, Indiana racer continued “December was a month I always looked forward to, to get the opportunity to test my talents inside of the Coliseum during the Rumble, against the best of the best in champ kart racing.”

In addition to the kart challenges, Howe has raced micro-sprints, Midgets and participates in vintage car racing. “It is amazing what you learn through go-kart racing and how much of it you apply to other forms of racing.”

Joining the Jeremy Howe Racing Sr. Champ division in Rumble kart racing this year will be the Economy Auto Parts 330 Clones, Bob Buescher Homes 360 Clones, everageautoparts.com Wedge Karts, Coe Heating Heating & Air Conditioning Junior 3’s, Junior Sportsman and 400 Clones. Also competing both days in complete racing programs will be the Midgets, LiUNA non-winged 600cc Midgets, North Baltimore Custom Cuts winged 600cc Midgets and six divisions of Baker Racing engines Quarter Midgets.

Advance tickets are available through any Ticketmaster outlet or at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum box office, and on race-day. For those unable to make the trek to Fort Wayne, this year’s program will be live streamed in its entirety via Pit Row TV and SPEED SPORT TV.
