

RUMBLE IN FORT WAYNE
PO Box 73
Rossburg, OH 45362
(937) 621-8242

contact: Larry Boos rumbleinfortwayne@gmail.com

for immediate news release

$2,000 TO WIN LIMBACHER MEMORIAL RACE HIGHLIGHTS RUMBLE KART ACTION

Legacy of Popular Engine Builder Carried on by Family

FORT WAYNE, IND (November 22, 2022) – Highlighting this year’s go-kart segment of the 24th running of the Rumble in Fort Wayne presented by Jason Dietsch Trailer Sales will be the John Limbacher Memorial Race, offering a whopping $2,000 paycheck to the victor of the 360 Clone chase on Saturday, December 31.

“My dad loved the go kart racing community,” commented Jon Limbacher, “and he was always thrilled when the engines he built came out on top. For us, coming to the Rumble every year was the highlight of our karting season. When he passed away in 2017, my family wanted to do something to give back to the racing community that my dad loved so much. So, BY combining his duo passions – kart racing and the Rumble – the John Limbacher Memorial Race was a natural.”

Two full days and nights of racing, December 30 and 31, will make up this year’s Rumble in Fort Wayne on the purpose-built 1/6 mile oval inside of Fort Wayne’s Allen County War Memorial Coliseum and Expo Center.

Joining the 360 Clone class for kart racing will be 6 other classes while the Quarter Midgets will join the karts with 6 divisions of racing primarily during the day hours. Highlighting the evening portion both dates will be the Midgets along with winged and non-winged 600 Midgets.

Shawn Kluck (Fremont, OH) captured last year’s Limbacher Memorial in a nail-biter, to become the fourth different winner. Jake Shelley (Okeana, OH) captured the initial running, followed in order by Dustin Heath (Morris, IL) and Philip Schneider (Wakakoneta, OH).

“Dad’s business, Limbacher Extreme Power, was highly respected in the go-kart circle and he loved the on-track competition level of the karts. With $2,000 to win, that certainly ups the ante on competition and I’m sure dad is proud of what we are doing to carry on his legacy,” continued Jon.

Rumble in Fort Wayne presented by Jason Dietsch Trailer Sales tickets are available through any Ticketmaster outlet or at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum box office, and on race-day.

Complete event information may be found at www.rumbleinfortwayne.com